MAKING THE MOST OF OPPORTUNITIES

At various times in your life, you've probably had the feeling that the opportunities are available for exactly what you want to do. At other times, you've undoubtedly experienced the feeling that hardly anything is going right and that you can't find a satisfactory outlet for your capabilities.

By using the science of numerology, though, you can recognize the specific influences and opportunities in your life at any given time. You can determine—in advance—the times of greatest opportunity and you can also foresee difficulties and the areas in which they're likely to happen. Numerology doesn't give you the ability to foretell the future. It does, however, give you the ability to see and analyze many of the coming influences and opportunities before they occur. This allows you to maximize the positive potential as well as to prepare beforehand for problems that may be developing.

This profile describes the influences and opportunities you can expect in your life during the time span shown. The profile also includes suggestions for resolving any difficulties as well as for making the best use of the coming opportunities.

JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER 2015

A TIME TO BE ALONE FOR MEDITATION, REFLECTION AND CONTEMPLATION. A TIME TO DEVELOP YOUR INNER POWER.

Your 7 Personal Year

Concentrate on spending time alone during 2015, preferably as free as possible from outside responsibilities. You probably have some business obligations to attend to throughout all or most of the year. If you can delegate some of these affairs to others, so much the better. But try to minimize the time spent on these matters. Avoid materialistic ventures as much as possible. Stay away from business affairs and pressures. This isn't the time to strain after money or possessions. Take care of family obligations but try to allow enough free time for yourself as well.

This year provides a very special link (and a vital pause) between the prior four active years and the extremely dynamic period that's likely to follow. This is not a time to expand or make changes. It's a time to think deeply, contemplate and reflect rather than act. You currently have a deep desire to know more. Among other matters, you want to become better acquainted with your own powers, past accomplishments and future desires. You want to study the past and present—and plan for the future. You also want to increase your knowledge and improve your talents.

Although you need this introspective time, sometimes you may feel lonely or limited when you're by yourself. Study and wait patiently so that any confusion you may be feeling can be replaced by a fine clarity, any loneliness superseded by a radiant understanding.

Although you'll take part in some socializing and certainly visit with your special close friends during the year, you'll have much less interest than usual in seeing other people and entertaining. You're likely to withdraw completely from any frivolous or superficial activity. You're more interested this year in quiet activities and intellectual pursuits—such things as reading, writing or studying. In your solitude, you may spend more time enjoying nature or beginning to develop a deeper personal philosophy.

This is a good year to work on developing your inner power and spiritual awareness. It's a time to develop religious or metaphysical interests or to begin or continue to make use of psychic or occult powers. Look for inner truths and bedrock fundamentals. Rely on your intuition to a greater extent than you have previously. Begin to make better use of your intuitive sense. Study or research some complex areas that have always been of interest. Detailed technical or scientific endeavors may interest you as much as spiritual matters.

At times during 2015 you may feel somewhat less energetic than usual. Take steps to gain more energy. Check on your health if that seems appropriate. Allow time for rest and relaxation.

Make sure your friends and family know when you're going off by yourself for rest or study. If they don't understand your need to be alone, do your best to communicate clearly with those who are primarily affected by your absences. Try to avoid misunderstandings with people who aren't comfortable with your leave taking or introspective needs. If associates or colleagues adopt what appears to be an unreasonable attitude, try to reason with them with understanding and sympathy. Explain your point of view carefully and calmly. Avoid fighting or forcing issues, since that will only alienate those you're trying to win over.

By the end of 2015, you're likely to gain increased understanding and awareness, possibly on a very special, deeper level. You'll probably have a much better sense of yourself and a stronger grasp of the workings of your inner being. Set some new goals and prepare some plans for future development based on this year's learning.

Special Focus For This Year

In 2015, allow some time for rest and relaxation, along with the time you devote to research and study. You're usually a hard worker, intensely determined and extremely self-disciplined. You can benefit considerably if you can become looser and more relaxed. You're probably going to be spending more time on your own in 2015. Set aside some of that time for just taking it easy. You may want to start taking better care of your health, too. Begin an exercise program. Start following a good diet, if necessary, to build yourself up.

Research some of the areas in which you need information to proceed with new or contemplated ventures. Also spend some time developing new skills or advancing some innate talents that can be helpful in your ongoing work. Emphasize intellectual matters, at least in part, instead of the down-to-earth material affairs with which you often work. Concentrate some efforts on developing your intuitive side and learning to trust your intuition. Do the work that has to be done this year but, as much as possible, take only the actions that are absolutely necessary. Be patient and let most of your affairs develop at their own pace.

Your 8 Essence

January 1 to June 19

While the above described Personal Year indicates the best approach for you to take for growth and development during 2015, the Essence points out the likely events to take place during the period that it is active. Knowing the probable events that will happen and the preferred approach to those events will help you to get the most out of your experiences.

The events and opportunities at this time emphasize your involvement, as well as advancement, in the business world. Much hard work and continuous effort is required, but your accomplishments can lead to a dynamic expansion of your current projects. If you aren't directly involved in a business venture, you may find that your professional standing and reputation improves. Whatever your involvement is, you'll feel an increase in the personal power you possess. To get the most from this period, use your organizational, managerial and executive skills. A practical and rational approach can gain others' confidence, opening new doors for you. Financial gains are also possible at this time.

Because your Essence for this period points in a very different direction than the Personal Year, you may find that things do not go as easily or as smoothly as you'd like. Your need to be alone for study and inner reflection at this time conflicts with your desire for material achievement. You may spend a good part of the time struggling to find a comfortable balance. It's possible, too, that you may try to avoid one of these energies all together. You'll find, though, that it resurfaces no matter what you do. Sometimes a balance can be reached by alternately using one energy, then the other. If at all possible, try to find an approach to the events and opportunities during this period that allows both energies to work together. This isn't always easy, but it can provide the best use of the potentials available.

June 20 through December 31

Opportunities and events during this period emphasize the development of cooperation and patience. Wherever possible, assist others—as individuals or in groups—to get their needs fulfilled. This is also a good time to form new personal or business relationships. These associations often can be important to you in the future when the help you gave is returned.

Even though you'll find yourself busy with many details requiring your attention, things go much slower now than you'd like. Don't force the situation, though, as this can actually be detrimental or even cause certain opportunities to disappear. Instead, learn the fine art of patience and let things advance at their own pace. Don't side step any emotional situations, either. If you have strong feelings, deal with them directly. Rest as necessary if you feel lowered energy and vitality.

Because your Essence for this period points in a very different direction than the Personal Year, you may find that things do not go as easily or as smoothly as you'd like. Your ability to give to others and harmonize disagreements at this time conflicts with your desire to spend time alone. You may spend a good part of the time struggling to find a comfortable balance. It's possible, too, that you may try to avoid one of these energies all together. You'll find, though, that it resurfaces no matter what you do. Sometimes a balance can be reached by alternately using one energy, then the other. If at all possible, try to find an approach to the events and opportunities during this period that allows both energies to work together. This isn't always easy, but it can provide the best use of the potentials available.

Monthly Highlights For 2015

The Personal Year is an important yearly influence. This influence, though, is expressed with a somewhat different emphasis each month. Be sure to take the monthly emphasis into account, too, when considering the best approach to take to each month's events. Monthly highlights for 2015 are given next, followed by detailed descriptions for each month.

Take care of some business or financial matters in January but don't expect them to develop very far. Begin some important planning in March, possibly with far-reaching potential. Enjoy some rest and relaxation in April and gain some new awareness you hadn't expected. Keep your feelings under control in June to avoid disagreements or breakups. September is a fine month to devote to private meditation and study. Turn your attention to material ventures in October but act only after you understand the situation completely.

JANUARY 2015

Your 8 Personal Month

Business and financial affairs are likely to require a lot of attention now, but much of it has to do with phasing out your obligations in order to give yourself time for personal and private matters. Pass some of your domestic responsibilities on to trusted family members. Take care of your ongoing commercial ventures but don't expect much advancement or development in 2015. Tie up all the loose ends, probably between January 5th and 23rd, so they don't come back to bother you later. Delegate as much business responsibility as you can to capable colleagues. Start to work on eliminating commercial affairs that haven't lived up to their potential. Recognize that new business opportunities probably hold little possibility for you throughout most of the year. Clarify the economic picture, particularly during the week of January 18th. Try to structure your finances so that you can manage this year with as little emphasis as possible on money matters. Make sure that those close to you are fully aware of your developing plans.

FEBRUARY 2015

Your 9 Personal Month

You're very conscious of an important transition beginning to take place this month, particularly from February 9th on. Some business affairs that weren't going anywhere are likely to terminate. Other conclusions, particularly with friends or colleagues, may be comparatively subtle ones. You may feel like you're reaching a place where you can comfortably separate—at least for a while—from many of those who've been close for a long time. Your need to be by yourself appears to be far stronger after February 18th than at any time during the few months since you became aware of this desire. Your need for solitude also meshes with the temporary severance or withdrawal of many of your close attachments. Chances are that you can't chart your course too accurately at this point. It's clear, though, that some important shifts are taking place. Be extremely tolerant and compassionate. Be sensitive to others' needs and emotions. Try to clarify your own feelings so that others have some understanding of what you're going through.

MARCH 2015

Your 1 Personal Month

The transition begun in February is likely to be completed this month. You'll feel somewhat separated from many of the close relationships of the last several years. By March 9th or thereabouts, you can spend some time by yourself the way you want. You can start to put into practice the plans you've been devising. You can begin to study or research areas that you haven't been able to get to previously. You may choose to work on intellectual affairs or spiritual matters. You may spend time meditating or contemplating art or nature. Chances are that you won't be able to spend as much time as you'd like by yourself but you can feel satisfied that you've gotten underway in this new direction. Proceed slowly and carefully. Accept the opportunities that you find but don't try to force situations to develop, particularly on or about March 15th or 24th. Make sure that others don't impose on you and restrict your special time.

APRIL 2015

Your 11/2 Personal Month

You'll want to spend at least part of your time this month by yourself or with one or two close friends. It's a fine time for spiritual study or research, as well as development of your psychic or occult powers. If you contemplate or meditate on religious or metaphysical matters, you may receive some special high-level awareness, particularly between April 9th and 18th. You also may choose to investigate some intellectual matters. If it appeals to you, you may want to share some of the insights and understanding you gain in your private work during the week of April 22nd. Spend part of your time in rest and relaxation, possibly on or around April 27th. New people may enter your life this month, often with unusual or intriguing interests or occupations. Be very patient and sensitive in your dealings with both new and old friends. Be ready to help and spend time with family members and associates but make sure also to allow time for your private studies.

MAY 2015

Your 3 Personal Month

Although there's the possibility of a lot of social activity this month, you may find that you prefer to take part in only a small portion of it. Primarily, you may enjoy some quieter activities or enterprises involving only a few people. If a trip or vacation is available, though, particularly around May 2nd, you may choose to take advantage of it. You'll probably choose to go only if it fits in with your continuing study and meditation program or if it can provide insights in specific areas with which you're involved. You're likely to feel a quiet joyfulness throughout much of May. You may want to initiate some creative project that allows you to express this deeply felt sense of pleasure and delight on or about May 11th. Allow some special caring time with your family between May 20th and 27th. If possible, organize some activities that will captivate and entertain your children. Spend some happy time with a romantic interest, too.

JUNE 2015

Your 4 Personal Month

Take care of your duties now but don't overdo your efforts—your important contemplative activities must be properly attended to. Don't expect too much to come out of any obligations you handle, either. Limit the time and effort you devote to new opportunities, since these ventures aren't likely to have much in the way of significant potential. Stay on track with your studies and research. Take care of any practical matters related to your solitary activities, particularly on or around June 4th, and, if necessary, firm up the foundations underlying your more significant interests. Make sure to sign contracts, agreements or other papers required during the week of June 9th. Complete any matters related to your home or property between June 13th and 27th. If you feel any sense of limitation or restriction, take a break or restructure the work you're doing to alleviate any stress. Make regular time for meditation or physical workouts.

JULY 2015

Your 5 Personal Month

You'll spend part of July by yourself with the studious or contemplative activities you've been involved in for many months. At this time, you may be exploring significant new directions that interest you or you may be planning to work on some of your undeveloped talents. You'll feel a need for more freedom and additional stimulation, though, and that's likely to take you away from your solitary ventures for a portion of the month, probably sometime between July 7th and 25th. There's lots of activity at hand right now. Some social activities may bring new friends or a romantic interest into your life. A short trip, on or about July 18th, may give you a chance to expand your horizons and get a bit of the relaxation you may be looking for. You may even prefer some relatively subdued experiences that present themselves and can stretch your mind, providing both intellectual and spiritual illumination.

AUGUST 2015

Your 6 Personal Month

Some domestic responsibilities are likely to interfere with your introspective activities this month. Some unexpected family matters, as well as legal or financial affairs related to your home, may need your attention. There also may be other problems to deal with regarding close relatives. Along with your various obligations, there'll be special times with family members you feel especially close to during the week of August 9th. Expect a great deal of affection, particularly if you reciprocate warmly. Enjoy lots of love and romance, too, on August 18th or thereabouts. Be sure to make time for the children between August 21st and 27th. When you do manage to spend some time alone, you may want to do some planning for the family future, along with your spiritual or intellectual studies. Some creative work that you do now—or make plans to carry out down the line—may lead to significant breakthroughs.

SEPTEMBER 2015

Your 7 Personal Month

You have a particularly strong need to spend much of September on your own. In some way, this month may provide a culmination for many of the year's activities. You may receive some special spiritual understanding that will clarify your general outlook, particularly during the week of September 18th. You may experience some intense inner growth, too. Some of your private researches or solitary creative endeavors may come to fruition at this time, as well, giving you much pleasure and satisfaction in addition to the insights you gain. You may also have time to evaluate and coordinate your plans for the future, sometime between September 9th and 27th. Your times by yourself can be particularly meaningful and contribute immeasurably to your inner faith and peace of mind. You may have to deal with others' concerns or resentments about your private activities, though. Be very sensitive and caring and try to avoid quarrels or misunderstandings.

OCTOBER 2015

Your 8 Personal Month

There may be much more activity this month than in September. Business affairs have been relatively quiet most of the year, but some movement will begin to take place now. Major business advances probably won't start until the new year begins, but some of your ongoing ventures are showing significant signs of life. Spend some time, particularly between October 11th and 18th, making plans for future development. Be on the lookout for any new commercial opportunities during the week of October 20th. Test the water but don't invest much of your time until the potential has developed further. You may look at material matters somewhat differently than you did previously, particularly after the insights you gained last month. Make sure that the projects you're expecting to work on are consistent with your new criteria. From October 28th on, you also may begin to recognize the signs of some endings or transitions—in business matters or your personal life—beginning to form.

NOVEMBER 2015

Your 9 Personal Month

It's time to pull together the different strands on which you've been working throughout the year. You'll feel that a number of your activities and intuitions are coming together this month. For instance, some phase of your inner growth may culminate during the week of November 7th. On or about November 16th, some spiritual or humanistic insights that you've been working on may finally jell. Expect some terminations of important matters or significant relationships, too, sometime between November 18th and 27th. An ongoing endeavor may conclude at this time, leaving you more time and energy for newer ventures. A personal—perhaps romantic—or business relationship also may come to an end. Although you may have wanted to avoid these endings, you may find that they give you considerably more freedom than you would have expected. Be very sensitive, understanding and compassionate. Keep your feelings under control. For best results, help your friends and colleagues stay calm.

DECEMBER 2015

Your 1 Personal Month

Change is in the air throughout this month and most likely into January and February of next year. You don't want to continue to spend time in quiet contemplation by yourself or with a few close friends. You're looking for more people and dynamic activity in your life now. There's a good deal of development in your business ventures, particularly between December 3rd and 9th. Some of the projects that began moving during the last few months are picking up steam. It may be time to put some of your new plans into action. Around December 16th, there also will be some new opportunities worth looking into. These opportunities hold the potential for a gain in status and reputation, as well as the possibility of financial benefit. Help things get underway but don't try to force a strong advance yet. Matters are likely to slow down from December 21st to the end of the month. Take a much needed break during the holiday season. Get a rest and prepare to make good use of your energies as 2016 opens. Spend enjoyable times with family and friends.

As 2015 concludes, continue with your study and research in areas which can be helpful in moving your various ventures ahead. Take care of work that has to be done but don't put a great deal of effort into advancing your projects at this time. During the last several months of 2015, continue to work on your nutrition and physical fitness programs. Stay as loose and relaxed as you can.

A LAST WORD

The information contained in this profile can be remarkably helpful. Read it once or twice when you first receive it. Read it again when important opportunities come your way. You may learn, as many people have, to benefit by making the most of the described possibilities by preparing beforehand.

Read the profile, too, when you feel stuck. You may benefit by figuring out how to deal with the difficulties in a better way. If you see a problem coming, a re-reading may show you how to prepare for that problem before it actually occurs. You may be surprised and delighted at the many times that the information in the profile contributes significantly to your life.
